Get Out of Your House Quarantine Scavenger Hunt: Bristol Edition

Solve the riddles below to find the related item. Then, take a picture proving you found it. Finally, create a way to prove that you found the item through a presentation software of your choice (PowerPoint, Prezi, Google Slides, etc.). The people with the most entries will be put in a drawing for a grand prize! Email entry to snydera@btcs.org.

State Street Locations

1.) 24/7 I do a good job of standing tall over two lines. BUT it's at night that you want to see me.

Answer:

2.) On the corner of Piedmont and State, you will find me on the ground, but do not get greedy because you will find that I am hard to pick up. If you need help finding me, just use your nose.

Answer:

3.) I am the building with lots of numbered stories.

Answer:

4.) If it is after 2:30, you will probably find many students inside my building, especially if they crave cappuccinos and donuts.

Answer:

5.) You see your answer to number 4? Well the chances are you may also visit me for that nice cup of a coffee to go with your donut, and my name is something you find a lot of in Springtime.

Answer:

6.) Look both ways before crossing the state lines, but as you cross be sure to look down so you can find my plaque.

Answer:

7.) If you search high and low around town, you will find 10 statues of me before I am a butterfly. But no worries, just one snapshot will do—no need to provide us with 10.

Answer:

8.) Tinker Bell may be a fictional Disney character, but if you look closely, you may find some places where she would live. Again, just provide a picture of one.

Answer:

9.) Come find me, the place where we celebrate Bristol's claim to fame!

Answer:

10.) 24/7 I burn to celebrate those whom we must never forget.

Answer:

11.) Downtown has 2 of me, a place where your imagination can run wild, and you may see Shakespeare come alive.

Answer:

Various Bristol Locations

1.) I am the historic home of three different sports programs that share the same name.

Answer:

2.) Before you enter number 1, you need to pass through me, an honor to a Bristol legend.

Answer:

3.) For 80 years my façade has stood tall, welcoming in generations of students who wear maroon and white. Come take a picture of my building.

Answer:

4.) I am one of Bristol's places where they lay you down, but you will not get up.

Answer:

5.) I am home to a creature that defies science and can be found on the other side of town. Every year you play us on a Friday night, but it is not much of a game. Come take a picture of our building.

Answer:

6.) Bristol used to have two of me in town, but for now I am the only one. I used to be a KC, but now I am known as KU.

Answer:

7.) I am number 3's little brother. Before you go to 3, you must come through me.

Answer:

8.) There are 5 of me in town, and before you hit up 7 and 3, you have definitely been through me.

Answer:

9.) I am a Bristol staple. Blue and white are my colors, and I go 360 degrees.

Answer:

10.) I am another name for your friend, and you do not need glasses to see my fries, hot dog, hamburger, and shake.

Answer:

11.) I am a building that goes in a complete circle. I am also home to several important people in charge of our schools.

Answer:

12.) Where I stand now used to be a school, but now I consist of hard surfaces and nets.

Answer:

13.) I am named after a male chicken and am one of several within Bristol.

Answer:

14.) Twice a year, I house thousands of people, but it is during Christmas time that you will want to come and see me lit up.

Answer:

Bonus

1.) I am a legendary bike rider who can only be found in Bristol.

Answer:

2.) I was built to block water and am the largest natural one found in the South.

Answer:

3.) I was opened but am now closed. However, there is talk I may reopen to house a lot of money games!

Answer: